

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION: ATLANTA, GA. TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 7, 1877

INDEX FOR ADVERTISERS ON FOURTH PAGE.

Advertisements in this column charged ten cents per each insertion, and no advertisement taken for less than thirty cents. No copy, destroyers or cuts will be admitted in this column.

ADVERTISEMENTS—When properly classified the smallest advertisement of three lines, with costs but thirty cents. It was the case with the above when it was intended to meet, and thus is just as valuable for this purpose as if it had been spread over the whole page.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HIGH SALARIES AND HIGH WAGES is what causes the general depression; but these evils will be remedied, and peace and prosperity will return. Address to the office of the real estate. Call at office, No. 1, Centennial Building, Atlanta, Ga. A. M. Lewis, Marcus A. Bell & Son, Real Estate Agents. 77 Augt. 7.

LOST AND FOUND.

REDUCED—Great reduction in prices for Dying and Cleaning Ladies, and Cleaning.

Those who have been disappointed in getting their laundry done, will be glad to know that we can do it better and cheaper.

Please see our large Powder Dose. Part broken with a sharp edge, and was lost in the laundry.

Strayed or Stolen on the night of July 28, a one legged Powder Dose. Part broken with a sharp edge, and was lost in the laundry.

A liberal reward will be paid for its return. 77 Augt. 7.

JOE BRADLEY AGAIN.

The New York Sun of last Saturday revives the story of the electoral conspiracy with the following remarkable statement of facts:

After the argument upon the Florida case before the late session of Congress in Washington, the Black Republicans were out on hand and in the Senate. Call at office, No. 1, Centennial Building, Atlanta, Ga. A. M. Lewis, Marcus A. Bell & Son, Real Estate Agents. 77 Augt. 7.

ANOTHER OSCOOLA.

It is stated that Osecola Cooper, a nephew of the famous Seminole chief who conducted the second Indian war in Florida, died recently in New York in the upper portion of a temporary house, and in great poverty.

It will be remembered that Osecola himself was known to Powell, the constable, owing to the great influence he had over his tribe and his success in restoring horses, or cattle stolen from the whites.

The Sultan of Turkey is said to show unexpected energy. Every day he attends the councils of his ministry, and houses himself close with the workmen of his cabinet.

—Mr. Abner Echols, of Walker county, has taken six hundred pounds of honey from twenty-six bee-hives this year, and there is more to come.

—Col. M. W. Thewatt, of Columbus, is dead. He was the private secretary of Governor John Forsyth. He was one of the best men in the state.

—Walton county has sixteen doctors, and that's all.

—The Conyn Courier advises Carter, of the DeKalb County News to feel of himself with a mustard plaster. This is as it should be.

—Mr. Elias Carroll, of Walker county, was dead.

—Mitchell county is manufacturing lime.

—Hamster, of the Griffin Sun, is in a hearing before the legislature, and if I see right the south will never be able to dispense with this kind of labor.—Erastus Brooks.

—Eugene Speer has arrived in town with a pocketful of pink and perfumed notes.

—Dick Loyal says he is going to stop being in favor o' conventions.

—Thornton's paper will come out as soon as the "mountain dew" gets off the grass.

—Ban. Russel is mighty sick because the convention won't adjourn and let him go home.

—The editor of the Thomasville Times says everybody ought to be married in the fall. This is because Adam and Eve, fell, we suppose.

—Major John D. Ferrill, the popular ordinary of Chatham county, was in the city yesterday. He was looking as though he had just come from a funeral.

—Two dandies which have been cursorily mentioned in the press, are the Hon. M. D. Strode and the Hon. W. M. Thompson.

—Clint Basin, one of the largest number merchants of Savannah, and the most genial of gentlemen, passed through the city on Sunday. He will read THE CONSTITUTION regularly hereafter.

—Dr. William Fraley, an old and prominent citizen of Louisville, is dead.

—Stewart county is afraid of caterpillars.

—A peach has been discovered in Stewart county which weighs a pound and two ounces.

MEMORIAL TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL COMMISSION OF GEORGIA.

As counsel for J. Boorman, Johnson & Co., I respectfully solicit your attention to the following resolution which I have prepared for the Constitutional Commission of Georgia:

Resolved, That the Constitutional Commission of Georgia, in view of the fact that the commissioners have been appointed, do hereby adjourn until the first Monday in October, A. D. 1877.

Good News.

No more Chills and Ague in this section.

Our Druggists are selling an article called

"Aureum Conqueror."

It is about the only safe factory product in the market.

And Dr. Childs, Internist of Atlanta.

The Proprietor of the Aureum Conqueror has used little energy to make his medicine known and the sales have been small.

Dr. Childs—A. L. Peeler, Druggist in Atlanta.
